

EVERY WEEK AT THE GAY COMMUNITY SERVICES CENTER
1614 Wilshire Boulevard
Los Angeles, CA 90017
Phone: [213] 482-3062

MONDAY

LEGAL ALTERNATIVES (5:30-7 p.m.): An attorney, a representative of the Gay Law Students Association and a representative of the American Civil Liberties Union are available at the Center every Monday to discuss any type of legal problem that you may be having.

VD CLINIC (7-9 p.m.): Complete VD examination and treatment clinic. All services are free, but donations will be accepted. You are urged to have a routine blood test at least every six months.

GAY AWARENESS RAP FOR MEN (7:30 p.m.): An informal, wide-ranging discussion on gay self-identity and the new gay consciousness emerging in the gay community. A good "start here" point for brothers who are ready to explore what it means to be gay.

TUESDAY

LESBIAN MOTHERS (7:30 p.m.): An informal group open to any gay woman who is also a mother. Discussion deals with the needs and concerns of lesbian mothers as well as providing their own alternatives. Child care is available.

GAY AWARENESS RAP FOR WOMEN (8 p.m.): An open, informal discussion group by gay women for gay women. A good "start here" point for sisters who are ready to begin exploring what it means to be gay today. Focuses on gay self-identity and the concerns that you bring to the group.

ALCOHOLICS TOGETHER (8:30 p.m.): Alcoholics Together, patterned after Alcoholics Anonymous but designed for gay women and men, holds an open meeting every Tuesday at The Van Ness Recovery House for sisters and brothers who are ready to deal with alcohol/drug abuse. The Van Ness House is located at 1322 North Van Ness Avenue, in Hollywood.

TRANSEXUAL RAP GROUP (8 p.m.): A peer counseling group aimed at providing support, information and referral services for transsexuals.

"GAY AT HEART" RADIO PROGRAM (11 p.m. on the third Tuesday of every month): The Center sponsors a one-hour radio program on KPFK-FM (90.7), dealing with topics of interest to gay women and men. Part of the program is open to telephone calls from the listening audience.

WEDNESDAY

DAYTIME GAY AWARENESS RAP (1:30 p.m.): Open to any sister or brother. An informal rap group dealing with a wide range of topics related to gay self-identity and the concerns that you bring to the group.

VD CLINIC (7-9 p.m.): Same as Monday.

GAY AWARENESS RAP FOR MEN (7:30 p.m.): Same as Monday.

THURSDAY

WOMEN'S CLINIC (7-9 p.m.): Complete gynecological and VD services provided by a professional staff, as well as self-help information by trained paraprofessionals. The clinic is staffed entirely by women. All services are free, but donations will be accepted.

GAY WOMEN'S COMMUNITY NIGHT (8 p.m.): A potpourri of activities for and by gay women. The evening provides an opportunity for sisters to participate in a wide range of activities including a gentle encounter, music and poetry, improvisational theater, body awareness, rapping and socializing. Meets every Thursday evening.

ALCOHOLICS TOGETHER (8:30 p.m.): Same as Tuesday.

FRIDAY

"COMMENTARY FROM THE GAY COMMUNITY SERVICES CENTER": Every Friday the Center sponsors on KPFK-FM (90.7) a program of news and commentary of interest to the gay community. The 15- to 30-minute show is part of KPFK's "Dealing" program, and airs sometime between 5 and 6 p.m.

GAY YOUTH (7:30 p.m.): Every Friday evening the Center is made available to gay women and men 21 and under in order that younger sisters and brothers can discuss their own needs and concerns as well as provide their own alternatives.

GAY FUNKY DANCE: Call the Center for the latest information.

SATURDAY

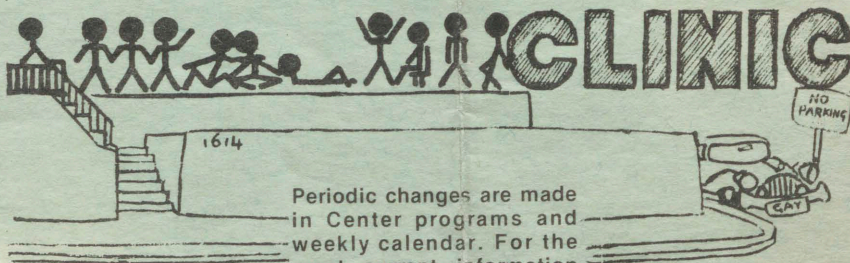

VD CLINIC (10 a.m.-Noon): Same as Monday and Wednesday.

TRANVESTITE RAP GROUP (1 p.m.): A peer counseling group aimed at providing support, information and human services for transvestites.

SUNDAY

WOMEN'S CONSCIOUSNESS RAISING GROUP (4 p.m.): An open group of gay women meeting to discuss a variety of topics relating to being a woman and to being gay. Each week a different subject is chosen.

SEXUALITY AND POLITICS RAP GROUP (7 p.m.): All sisters and brothers welcome. An informal discussion group dealing with the topic "Gay Oppression: A Political Problem." Meets every Sunday.
